Prelude: Brenda Groce, East Maiden Baptist Church

1. The One Hundred Thirteenth Annual Session of the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina was called to order by Dr. Jeff Cranford, moderator, on Monday, October 21, 1991 at 6:15 P.M. The host church was Salem Baptist Church, Lincolnton, North Carolina.

2. Dr. Cranford recognized Rev. Gary Rankin, chairman, Associational Program Committee. Gary moved "that those registered and those who will register during our gathering constitute the 113th Annual Session and that the program found on pages 3 and 5 of the Book of Reports be the order of business of the 113th Annual Session. 5. Charles Cranford, host pastor, extended the welcome on behalf of Salem Baptist Church, Lincolnton.

6. The moderator recognized visitors from outside the association: Clarence Smith serving with the Home Mission Board, and T.V. Smith, Director of Missions, both of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Northeastern Baptist Association.

7. Glain Pennell, director of missions, recognized and welcomed new workers that have come to the association during the year.

8. Medley of hymns Nos. 483 through 486. Directed by Phillip Campbell, First Baptist Church, Lincolnton and the associational music director.

9. Reports and Miscellaneous Business:

a. Treasurer's Report - Betty Setzer

Referred to pages 36-39 of the Book of Reports. Since there were no questions or corrections, the moderator ruled that by common consent the report be accepted as printed.

b. Finance Committee - Neil Mullen

Referred to pages 19-20 of the Book of Reports. He pointed out that the budget shows less than a 4% increase over the current year and one of the items that increased the budget is the Polish Partnership that will take place in May 1992. He moved "that the proposed budget be adopted." Seconded. Motion adopted.

c. Program Committee - Rev. Gary Rankin

Registration was 189 messengers, 44 visitors, which included 15 who served as registrars and servers.

Moved that the 114th Annual Session be held at David Memorial Baptist Church, Lincolnton, with Darrell Bost, pastor of Leonard's Fork Baptist Church, preaching the annual sermon and Wayne Haynes, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, as alternate. Seconded. Motion adopted.

d. Executive Committee - Elliott Loftin

Referred to pages 18-19, with the following addition to that report; at the September meeting the committee appointed Richard Kennedy, Westport Baptist Church as parliamentarian to fill the unexpired term of Kermit Caldwell, deceased.

He moved that the report be adopted as printed along with the addition above. Since there were no objections to the report it was adopted.

e. Miscellaneous Business

Nicholas Cheek, pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, wanted to present a Resolution for the consideration of the Association. In reference to the Associaton's By Laws, Article IX, part 7. Rev. Cheek made the motion that the rule be suspended and the resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

The moderator explained and read to the messengers what Article IC, part 7 is. "The Resolutions Committee shall present to the Association any resolutions it may deem wise. All resolutions presented to the Association shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first day of the annual meeting, the rules may be suspended and a resolution may be taken up for immediate consideration.

The vote was 109 for and 38 against. Did not meet the 2/3 majority. Motion did not carry.

At this time the parliamentarian, Richard Kennedy, said that 98 votes would be a majority to overrule the chairs ruling.

At this time, the allotted time for Miscellaneous business had expired.

A motion to extend the time to ten minutes for the business session was made. Motion was seconded. Count taken 120 for 29 against. Motion carried.

Nicholas Cheek read the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Southern Baptist Convention is rooted in cooperation, let it be known. William Carey, the "father of modern missions" and his English colleagues in 1792 formed the "Particular Baptist Society for Propagating the Gospel Among the Heathen;"

WHEREAS, such organizing specifically for cooperation in missions became the rallying point that would ultimately pull together Baptists of many scattered backgrounds — Particular, General, Regular and Separate:

WHEREAS, cooperation in missions has continued to be the main unifying factor among Baptists, who by nature and by belief are easily subject to fragmenting tendencies;

WHEREAS, what William Carey began in England and through the English Baptist mission to India became effective among Baptists in America through Adoniram Judson and Luther Rice;

WHEREAS, this cooperation resulted in the "General Missionary Convention of the Baptist Denomination in the United States of America for Foreign Missions," organized in 1814 and popularly known as the "Triennial Convention;"

WHEREAS, the Southern Baptist Convention was organized at Augusta, Georgia, in 1845 for the purpose of (and I quote the original and still approved preamble of the establishing constitution May 8, 1845) "carrying into effect the benevolent intentions of our constituents, by organizaing a plan for eliciting, combining, and directing the energies of the whole denomination in our sacred effort, for the propagation of the Gospel;"

WHEREAS, because of such a purpose the result was the establishing of mission boards for home and foreign missions;

WHEREAS, it is practically impossible to think about our Baptist heritage without thinking of missionary vision and enthusiasm;

WHEREAS, our conceiving purpose and durable results have come under ambush by the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship;

WHEREAS, historical Southern Baptists have from conception received their commissioning from the Lord Jesus who says, "go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature;"

WHEREAS, this command of Jesus calls Southern Baptists to their fullest cooperation;

WHEREAS, the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship has not approached the Southern Baptist Convention in session to establish their endeavors under the umbrella of the Southern Baptist Convention confirms the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship's plundering strategy;

WHEREAS, the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship wishes to glean "Cooperative Program" dollars from cooperating Southern Baptist Churches assaults the very integrity of our scriptural purpose and is naked agression upon the largest and most productive force of missionaries the evangelical world has ever known;

WHEREAS, this filtration of our Southern Baptist Churches undermines the good work of the home and foreign mission boards, the "Cooperative Program" and "Bold Mission Thrust;"

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT THE SOUTH FORK BAPTIST ASSOCIATION meeting on October 21-22, 1991 does here by counter, combat, resist, repel, and oppose the integration, uniting, synthesizing or blending of Cooperative Baptist Fellowship within the mission structure and endeavors among cooperating Southern Baptist Churches in this Association, State Convention and National Convention.

Rev. Cheek made a motion that the resolution be adopted by the Association.

The chair ruled that Resolution and motion out of order. Pointed out the following rules of order (Robert's Rules of Order), No motion is in order that conflicts with the laws of nation, or state or with the assembly's constitution or By Laws and if such a motion is adopted even by unanimous vote it is null and void. Paragraph 47. Paragraph 68. - No standing rule or resolution or motion is in order that can conflict with the constitution or By Laws or Rules of Order or Standing Rules of the Body.

Dr. Cranford also read Article III of the South Fork Baptist Association's Constitution. "AUTHORITY - The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches."

On the basis of that article of our Constitution the resolution and motion was ruled out of order.

Motion made by Nicholas Cheek to overrule the chair.

Moderator pointed out the reason he ruled as he did. Robert's Rule expressly forbids the violation of the Constitution and By Laws of the Body. There are procedures within the Constitution and By Laws that would be violated if they were not protected and respected. He sees it as clear that our constitution prohibits the association from involvement in any internal affairs of any of its member churches, therefore on the basis of Robert's Rules of Order he ruled as he did.

Robert's Rules of Order states that any vote taken in violation of the constitution is null and void even if it is unanimous.

Standing vote taken to overrule the chair 46 for, 81 not to overrule. Motion lost.

10. Special Music by the Associational Choir led by Rev. Phillip Campbell, accompanied by Rosemary Ball. "The Servant Song."

11. Scripture Reading by Darrell Bost, pastor of Leonard's Fork Baptist Church, Lincolnton. Mark 12:1-12.

12. The annual sermon was delivered by Dr. Robert Wensil, pastor of Pearl Baptist Church, Iron Station.

13. Break

14. Musical Interlude by the Associational Choir, directed by Phillip Campbell, — An Evangelism Medley.

15. Jeff Cranford, moderator, expressed appreciation to the people of Salem Baptist for the refreshments served and for their hosting the annual meeting.

He introduced Edwin Coats, executive director of N.C. Baptist Foundation.

16. Edwin Coats shared his testimony on how he came to be associated with the N.C. Baptist Foundation and what the Foundation does. He referred to page 28 of the Book of Reports.

17. Glain Pennell, director of missions, introduced Dr. Dewey E. Merritt and his wife Sarah Elizabeth Merritt. Dr. Merritt is the associate director of Volunteers in Missions Department of the Foreign Mission Board.

18. Special Music "Be Strong In The Lord," by the associational choir, directed by Phillip Campbell and accompanied by Rose Mary Ball.

20. Dr. Cranford led in the benediction.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1991

21. The meeting was called to order by Rev. Charles Cranford, vice moderator.

22. Devotion and prayer were led by Steve Weaver, pastor of First Baptist Church, Maiden, using as his text II Corinthians 9:6-15.

23. John Robbins, pastor of East Maiden Baptist Church, Maiden, presented a theme interpretation based on Matthew 6:19-21.

24. Charles Cranford, host pastor, welcomed everyone on behalf of Salem Baptist Church.

25. Charles Cranford, vice moderator, recognized visitors from outside of the association: Dean Doster, Home Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention.

26. Hymn No. 591, "Hark, The Voice of Jesus Calling," directed by Jewel Smith, Salem Baptist Church, choir director; accompanied by Brenda Avery and Shirley Hollifield.

27. Reports and Miscellaneous Business:

Rev. Charles Cranford, vice moderator, announced that he would not accept the nomination of moderator for 1992. Would like for someone else to have their turn.

a. Election of Officers

Vice moderator opened the floor for nominations for moderator. Dr. Robert Wensil, pastor, Pearl Baptist, nominated Bob Wise, pastor, Oak Grove Baptist Church, B.J. Morris, pastor, Crouse Baptist Church seconded. Carried. Rev. Bob Wise was elected by acclamation.

Rev. B.J. Morris nominated Bill Bigham, pastor, Denver Baptist Church. James Cool, pastor, Lincoln Avenue seconded. Carried. Rev. Bill Bigham was elected by acclamation.

Vice moderator introduced Bob Wise and Bill Bigham to the association. Both pastors expressed their thanks for the vote of confidence and for the privilege given them.

b. Stephen Curtis, pastor, Mt. Anderson Baptist Church, and the new Discipleship Training director, called attention to November 25, "M" Night. He challenged churches to have 10 (or no less than 5) persons from their church at "M" Night. This invitation is to churches whether they have a Discipleship organization or not, pointed out that we all should be interested in discipleship training.

Nominating Committee report was then given by Stephen Curtis referred to pages 25-28 of the Book of Reports. Moved that "the election of those persons listed." Bob Wise asked that Rebecca Brackett be added as Special Ministries Director on the Sunday School Assist Team. She had been left off the list. Report was accepted as printed.

c. Committee on Committees - Bob Wise

Referred to pages 16-17 of the Book of Reports. Pointed out that only the persons underscored are being elected this year. The others have already been elected in prior years. Also, that there are several persons who have been appointed to fill unexpired terms of persons who have left our association. The names with stars are the chairmen of various committees. He moved "that the report of the Committee on Committees be adopted." Seconded. Motion adopted.

d. Memorials - Edna Pitts

Referred to pages 44-46 of the Book of Reports. The association had a total of 135 deaths from 41 churches reported. She recited words found at the Brook Green Gardens, in S.C. as a Memorial to the deceased. She read Acts 1:8. Asked everyone to stand for a moment of silent meditation and she led in prayer.
NOTE: The vice moderator, Charles Cranford, yielded the chair to the moderator, Jeff Cranford, at this time.

e. Resolutions Committee - Rev. Wayne Haynes

Referred to page 31 of the Book of Reports. He Moved "the adoption of the resolutions as printed." Seconded. Carried.

f. Miscellaneous Business - Nicholas Cheek, pastor of Antioch Baptist. Moved that the voting messengers of the 113th Annual Meeting of the South Fork Baptist Association go on record as opposing the existence of the newly formed Cooperative Baptist Fellowship as a threat to the strength, unity and general welfare of the Southern Baptist Convention. Motion was seconded by James Cool, pastor, Lincoln Avenue.

Rev. Phillip Tillman, pastor, Mt. Zion, Alexis, asked the laymen and women present to defeat the above motion. He then elaborated on reasons for defeating it. Pointed out that the group being discussed in the motion believes in open meetings, in the honest exchange of ideals, rather than an executive committee which does its work behind locked doors, guarded by an armed sentry and is paid for by the cooperative program. They believe in a free press, to report the truth, unfettered by those who would repress it, rather than a Baptist press, no longer free to provide a flow of accurate information about the events in Baptist life.

This group of main-line Southern Baptists, growing daily, is strongly supportive of missions at home and around the world.

This group is Christian men and women who believe strongly in the autonomy of the local Baptist church and that no pastor or group of pastors has the responsibility or the right to impose upon them how they should give and to whom they should give it to. He again asked that the above motion be defeated.

Moderator pointed out that the time for Miscellaneous Business had expired. He asked the parliamentarian to come to the platform. After conferring with the parliamentarian the moderator called for a vote on the motion. Rev. Cheek was asked to read the motion again, and to give a copy to the clerk. Motion adopted.

28. The doctrinal sermon "Doctrine of Lordship" was presented by Gary Rankin, pastor of Craig Memorial Baptist Church, using as his text John 13:13.

29. Charles Cranford then asked everyone to join hands and asked Dr. W.L. Pitts to lead in Grace before the meal.

30. Break

32. Rev. Cranford announced that video and cassette tapes of the annual meeting were available at the cost of the tapes only. If interested just let him know.

Referred to the page 34 of the Book of Reports. He asked that everyone take time to read it. He offered the help of the Assist Team to the churches.

Bob presented Certificates of Appreciation to the workers of the team; Mark McKinney, youth director; Elaine Putnam, children's director; Linda Caldwell, preschool director; Coble Fonville, outreach director; Gary Huntsinger, adult director.

Bob reported that they have taken part in 2 major conferences done on association wide level. Some have done personal consultations in churches about various problems. Again this year, they achieved the Standard Recognition for our Association. This was begun several years ago under the leadership of Dr. Jeff Cranford. Last year there were only 17 associations in N.C. to receive this honor.

c. Volunteers in Missions - Glain S. Pennell

Recognized persons who had served as volunteers in missions. He asked them to come and stand at the front. Glain explained that a letter had been sent to the pastors asking for a list of names of the people in their church who had done volunteer work relating to projects of the Home or Foreign Mission Boards. The following people were reported:

Glain mentioned two things coming up if you would like to be involved in volunteer missions. 1. A request from Sao Paulo, Brazil for 10 teams in Evangelism to go to Brazil, September 4-14, 1992. There will be an interest meeting on November 19, 7:00, at the association office. This is for anyone interested in obtaining information about the trip. 2. Another possible partnership is that a Polish Baptist pastor will be available to speak in churches in our association on April 25 - May 3, 1992. Asked that churches check their calendars and if they could work this in their schedules contact Raymond Hamrick, Brotherhood Director. The scheduling is being handled through the Brotherhood Organization. Would like for the Polish pastor to be used in as many churches as possible. There will be a time for an associational mass meeting with this pastor.

Glain presented to Bob Wise, associational Sunday School Director, a certificate for Associational Sunday School Standard Recognition. This is awarded for achievement in basic Sunday School work to the South Fork Association.

Glain expressed his gratitude to the workers and churches for the support given to the association this past year.

Referred to Digest of Letters on page 51 of the Book of Reports. Noted comparison in 1990-91, we showed increases in almost every area. Baptisms increased 65 over 1990. He recognized the following churches as the top 10 in baptisms: Westport - 36, Salem - 31, Lincoln Avenue - 26, Reepsville - 21, Southside - 20, Calvary - 18, Macedonia - 17, North Brook - 17, Antioch - 15, Denver - 15, Faith - 14, Maiden, First - 14, Gainsville - 14, Pearl - 14, Hull's Grove - 13.

Glain commended all churches in the association for reaching people and challenged them to reach more in 1992.

Glain noted that although most areas showed again, he pointed out that while the monetary records showed an increase in money coming into the churches, the giving through the cooperative program, and gifts to the association and total mission gifts showed a decrease. This is the first time in fourteen annual meetings that he can recall a decrease in associational giving. Nineteen churches increased their giving to the association in 1991 as compared to 1990, while on the other hand, twenty churches decreased their giving, and 10 churches remained the same in the amount given to the association for the associational mission program.

Expressed deep appreciation for all the support given to the association. Reminded everyone that this is their association and the programs and budget that they have adopted are theirs. As they support and underwrite that which their association is doing, their association can do it as long as churches support the association. When this support is not given, it is your associational programs that do not get completed. He commended the churches for the fine job that has been done and for the many churches who have taken seriously the ideal of percentage giving and those churches who are striving toward giving at least 3% of their undesignated offering.

Glain's prayer is that during this coming year we can be united in our efforts, through our faith in Jesus Christ, to reach people here in our association area and throughout the world.

35. Rev. Cranford introduced the guest speaker, Dean Doster, Regional Coordinator of the Planning Department, Home Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention.

36. Special Music by the Salem Choir, led by Jewel Smith. "Yes, Lord, Yes."

37. Missionary address presented by Dean Doster. He recognized two home missionaries present, T.B. Smith, Director of Missions, and Clarence Smith both from Fort Wayne, Indiana. He used as his text John 6:2-11, 33-35. The presentation ended with a special invitational Hymn No. 282, "Living For Jesus" with Jesse Waugh, accompanying on the piano.

38. Jeff Cranford turned the gavel over to new moderator, Bob Wise.

39. Nicholas Cheek led in the benediction.

Dedication

The South Fork Baptist Association, meeting in the One Hundred Fourteenth Annual Session, voted on October 20, 1992, to dedicate the 1992 annual minutes to the following faithful ministers:

Horace Crouse

In 1923, Horace Crouse was born in Lincoln County, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Crouse. He and Pauline Wallace of Stanley were married in 1946. To them were born five children: Horace, Jr., Yvonne, Mackie, Frances and Anne. Rev. Crouse attended Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute during 1960-1963 and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary during 1964-1965. While members of Macedonia Baptist Church, both he and Mrs. Crouse assisted in the beginning of a mission, which became Westport Baptist Church. He served as pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church, Lincolnton and churches in Troutman and Morganton. After his retirement in 1988, Rev. Crouse served as interim pastor in the Lincoln County area. On January 7, 1992, he went to be with his Lord.

Jack H. Mace

Jack H. Mace was born in Belmont, North Carolina on June 10, 1922. His parents, Rev. R.G. and Della Mace were originally from Hendersonville. He was married on May 26, 1941 to Jo McClure. The Maces have three children: Ann, Van and Jackie. Rev. Mace was ordained to the ministry on November 16, 1947. Participating in the ordination were his father, the Rev. R.G. Mace and his father-in-law, the Rev. L.A. McClure. He served as pastor of Sharon and Macedonia churches in the South Fork Baptist Association. While at Macedonia, he was a motivator in the beginning of the Mission that became Westport Baptist Church. Other pastorates include Royal Oaks Baptist Church, Cabarrus Association and Powellsville and Centergrove churches in the West Chowan Association.

After retirement in 1984, Rev. Mace served as interim pastor in churches in the Lincoln-Gaston area. His homegoing was June 29, 1992.

Winfred M. Turner

Winfred M. Turner was born in Marlboro County, South Carolina on February 12, 1927 to Willie and Sudie Turner. He married Doris Brown and to them were born two daughters, Barbara Ann and Angelia. Rev. Turner entered the ministry in the Early 1960's and attended Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and the Bowman Gray School of Pastoral Care. He served as pastor of the Ephesus Baptist Church, Raeford, North Carolina; the Union Baptist Church, Marion, South Carolina; and Amity Baptist Church, South Fork Baptist Association. In 1978, ill health necessitated his retirement. With severe health problems, he continued to preach as God gave him strength, serving as interim pastor in the South Fork area, including such churches as Pearl, Gainsville, Sharon and Fellowship. He was an active member of Pearl Baptist Church until his homegoing on February 23, 1992.

TED DRUM TURNER

Ted Drum Turner was born in Catawba County on October 16, 1937, the son of Audie and Leola Turner. In December, 1970, he married Peggy Baumgardner. They have two children, Donna and John. He announced his call to the ministry in 1971 and from 1975-77, he was a student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Turner served Cedar Grove Baptist Church as interim pastor during 1990 and 1991. After experiencing continual declining health, he went to be with his Lord on February 19, 1993.

LOYD JUNIOR SPENCER

Loyd Junior Spencer was born on October 4, 1925 in Lincoln County, the son of Loyd and Minnie Spencer. In 1946, he and Lela Parvell Spencer were married and to them were born three sons, Dannie, Barry, and Tim, who is pastor of Willow Oak Baptist Church in Walnut Cove, N.C. Rev. Spencer entered the ministry in 1959. He served as pastor of Roseland, David Memorial, and Zoar Baptist Churches. In 1988, he was called as pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church.

WHEREAS, legislation to allow a state-operated lottery and parimutual gambling (horse/dog racing) with off-track betting parlors "died" in legislative committees during the 1992-94 session of the N.C. General Assembly;

WHEREAS, House Speaker, Daniel T. Blue, Jr., provided strong opposition to any gambling proposals;

WHEREAS, the $300 billion gambling industry has announced that an effort will be made in the 1995 session of the General Assembly to secure passage of legislation that will permit riverboat casino gambling in N.C.;

WHEREAS, Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. has signed a compact with the Cherokee Indian officials that will allow gambling operations on the reservation;

WHEREAS, the Christian Action League of N.C. has been the flagship organization in opposing gambling initiatives in our state;

WHEREAS, legalized gambling is being promoted as an economic development tool for local governments that will provide jobs and more taxes;

WHEREAS, any employment created as the result of legalized gambling will be low-skill and low-paying jobs with no useful product being produced;

WHEREAS, studies reveal that legalized gambing exploits the poor because this group will spend a greater proportion of its income on gambling activities than any other group seeking the proverbial pot of gold at the end of the rainbow;

WHEREAS, gambling enterprises undermine public confidence in government because they play upon the weaknesses of its citizens rather than developing their strengths;

WHEREAS, gambling operations enhance criminal activity and encourage corruption;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT THE SOUTH FORK BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, meeting on October 18, 1994 does hereby:

1. Express our gratitude to Almighty God that proposed legislation to legalize this insidious evil of gambling was defeated;

4. Express our disappointment to Governor James B. Hunt, Jr., State Capitol, Raleigh, North Carolina 27611, for entering into a compact with the Cherokee Indian officials to allow gambling activities on the reservation; and
5. Express our gratitude to the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. for its leadership in this battle against the $300 billion gambling industry and urge all churches in this Association to include the ministry of the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc., in its budget;
